

Team 1923: The Midknight Inventors

Awards

Renee G. & Wesley N.

October 17th, 2016

Overview

- Why Awards?
- Advancement
- Technical Awards
- Non-technical Awards
- Chairman's Award
- Last Season

Why Awards?

For Inspiration and Recognition of Science and Technology

Advancement

- Teams advance on a points-based system
- We earn points by:
 - Qualification round ranking
 - Alliance captain/alliance selection
 - Playoff round performance
 - Winning awards
- We can qualify from the Regional & Region Championship level by:
 - Winning Chairman's, Engineering Inspiration
 - Winning the event

Technical Awards

- Excellence in Engineering Award sponsored by Delphi
- Industrial Design Award sponsored by General Motors
- Quality Award sponsored by Motorola
- Creativity Award sponsored by Xerox
- FIRST Future Innovator Award sponsored by the Abbott Fund
- Innovation in Control Award sponsored by Rockwell Automation

Non-technical Awards

- Engineering Inspiration Award
- Entrepreneurship Award sponsored by Kleiner Perkins
Caufield and Byers
- FIRST Dean's List Award
- Gracious Professionalism Award sponsored by J&J
- Imagery Award in Honor of Jack Kamen
- FIRST Dean's List
- Woodie Flowers Award

Non-technical Awards

- Industrial Safety Award sponsored by Underwriters Laboratories
- Judge's Award
- Media and Technology Innovation Award sponsored by Comcast NBC Universal
- Safety Animation Award sponsored by UL
- Team Spirit Award sponsored by Chrysler

Chairman's Award

- Most Prestigious Award in FIRST
- Given to teams that
 - Are a model for other teams
 - Embody the purpose of FIRST
 - Make a difference in the world
- Chairman's at World Championship = Hall of Fame

Chairman's Award

- Submission includes
 - Executive summary
 - Essay
 - Video
 - Presentation + Judges' Questions
- Content involves
 - Team organization/sustainability
 - Relationship with school and community
 - Outreach efforts
 - Local and corporate sponsors

Questions?